Who can participate in the Cal Teach internships?

Students interested in teaching Math or Science may start in any year.1 Junior transfer students are welcome.2

What is the Cal Teach internship?

The Cal Teach internships consist of a placement in a local high or middle school and one of the CaT courses.

CaT1 (EDUC 50B/C)
CaT2 (EDUC 100B/C)
CaT3 (EDUC 185L)
CaT4 (EDUC 198F)3
Special Projects (EDUC 197)3

When is the Cal Teach internship offered?

Fall: CaT1
Winter: CaT1, CaT2
Spring: CaT2, CaT3
Any Quarter: CaT4, Special Projects3

Cal Teach Contact Information:

Main Office:
JEBB 157B
831-459-2226
caltech@ucsc.edu

STAFF:
Resource Center Director
Gretchen Andreasen
gha@ucsc.edu

Program Assistant/ Student Advisor
Paulina Rodriguez (Fall 2013)
pxrodrig@ucsc.edu
Lea Evans (On Leave Fall 2013)
lea@ucsc.edu

Internship Coordinator
Pat Kent
pkent@ucsc.edu

Cal Teach Offers:

✓ Internships
✓ Scholarships
✓ Advising
✓ Test Support
✓ Professional Development
✓ Cal Teach Lounge

Interested in Teaching Science or Math?

π

And more…

✓ CaT1 satisfies PR-S.
✓ CaT courses count towards:
  ~ Majors in Mathematics, Earth Sciences, Physics, and Biology
  ~ Minor in STEM Education*

*For traditional math or science majors
Cal Teach Intern Resources

Scholarships
Cal Teach offers…
- NSF Noyce scholarships to attend UCSC’s MA/Credential program ($16,000 - $20,000)
- NSF Noyce scholarships for transfer students in STEM majors planning teaching careers* ($10,000 - $20,000)
- Mark Bruce Fellowships for Math and Science Teachers to attend UCSC’s MA/Credential program ($1,000 - $20,000)
- Scholarships for Cal Teach interns ($150 - $600)

“Working with my host teacher has been a great learning experience! It is really helpful to see how she works in the classroom and what she does to be an effective teacher. Her advice on becoming a teacher has helped me start to figure out what path I’m going to take.”

-Marisol Briones, Biology, Winter ‘13

Test Support
For the Teacher Credential exams, CSET & CBEST, Cal Teach offers…
- Reimbursements for the cost
- Study guides for both exams
- Help organizing study groups
- Help organizing carpools to test sites

Advising
Cal Teach can help you…
- Plan WHEN and HOW to apply for credential programs
- Coordinate coursework with Cal Teach internship
- Attain information on loan forgiveness programs available for math, science, and special education
- Get information on other federal grants

Cal Teach Student Lounge
Located in Jack Baskin Engineering (room 173)
Cal Teach lounge offers…
- Couch, study tables, chalk board, and white board
- Refrigerator, microwave, coffee maker
- Hot and cold drinks
- Library
- Study space down the hall from Cal Teach classroom and offices
- Cohort of like-minded undergrads interested in making a difference in California’s public schools

Professional Development
Cal Teach offers…
- Workshops
- Financial support for attending teacher professional development events
- Summer internship opportunities

*Participating Institutions: Cabrillo, Cañada, Foothill, Gavilan, Hartnell, Ohlone, and San José City Colleges

---

Introductory Cal Teach1 (CaT1) Internship

Science or Math internship

- Placement in a local high school or middle school
- 2-3 hours a week in a classroom
- Classroom observation
- Helping/tutoring students
- Possibility of teaching lessons
- Teaching insight from host teacher

AND

Enrollment in EDUC 50B/C
- Small seminar class
- 2-unit course
- Teaching and learning tools to use in classroom and internship

“As a teacher it is very inspiring and rejuvenating to work with the Cal Teach interns. They have so many positive, fresh, innovative ideas about teaching and scientific research that benefits my high school and middle school students.”

-Darrell Steely, Science Teacher at Pacific Collegiate School

---